

Another Pint's June Newsletter

June was a great month for Another Pint. We generated some real interest in booking our U.S. Tour and recording our second CD, Gossipers and Liars. We also played at two new venue for us, Shenanigan's in Tallahassee, FL and McCabe's in Naples, FL . The Colonel also proposed to his now fiancé Margie Flanagan at The Kerry Piper on the 21st. You can find the "Song of the Month" on page 3.

Going Down the Road Feeling Bad

I'm (G) going down that road feeling bad, Yes, I'm
(C) going down that road feeling (G)bad,
Yes, I'm (C) going down that road feeling (G) bad, oh, (Em) Lord, and I (G) don't wanna be treated (D) this a- (G) way.

I'm going where the weather suits my clothes,
I'm going where the weather suits my clothes,
I'm going where the weather suits my clothes, lord, lord
I don't wanna be treated this-a-way.

Chorus

I'm going where the water tastes like wine
I'm going where the water tastes like wine
I'm going where the water tastes like wine, oh, lord
I don't wanna be treated this-a-way.

Chorus

I'm going where my friends are all around
I'm going where the water tastes like wine
I'm going where the water tastes like wine, oh, Lord
I don't wanna be treated this-a-way.

Chorus
