

Another Pint's September Newsletter

September was a blast for Another Pint! We played at a couple of our favorite pubs in Illinois and Kelly took off to Ireland for two weeks. Glen Pekin finished the fiddle tracks for the new CD and we prepared for our trip to Florida.

Check out the song of the month on Page 3!

Come down the mountain Katy Daley, come down the mountain Katy do

Can't you hear us calling, Katy Daley. We want to drink your Irish Mountain Dew G

With her old man she came from Tipperary in pioneer days of '42

Her old man was shot in Tombstone City for the making of Irish Mountain Dew

Wake up and pay attention Katy Daley, I am the judge that's gonna sentence you

All the boys at court has drunk the whiskey and tell the truth, I drink a little too

So to the jail they took poor Katy Daley & very soon the gates were opened wide

Angels came to court Katy Daley took her across the Great Divide
